This segment will have three open questions.

- Where did the group need some improvement and what were the strong suits of the group?

From my perspective I could tell you worked well with each other. I could tell you were on the same page and that all of you are equally driven.

- How effectively did the group work?

I think you all have a very professional manner, are punctual and have an active approach. I think you all equally contributed, which is also why I awarded you all with the same number of points.

- Could Bierens adequately participate in the project's decisions?

Yes definitely, you asked good questions during our sessions and incorporated our feedback well in your work.
